

ELYSIAN DUO

REPERTOIRE

You may already have some ideas for your 'special' pieces, but if not, you may find it useful to bear in mind the following:

- The bride's entry is obviously an extremely special moment and the music can either be chosen to convey a mood of true serenity and beauty or alternatively can set a triumphant and uplifting mood at this point.
- Usually the music during the signing of the register is very calm and reflective and as this part of the ceremony usually lasts between about 8 and 10 minutes, there is often time to play two and sometimes even three pieces during this period, depending on the precise selection.
- In contrast, the music for the exit is normally quite lively so as to give a very joyful and celebratory conclusion to the ceremony.

Our repertoire is ever-expanding. Please browse through our current list:
